

District of Columbia Troops on the Border

Men of 1st Separate examining baggage that is to be taken across the border at Naco to see that no arms or ammunition is carried into Mexico from the United States.

Foot inspection on hike taken by Field Hospital troops, Capt. Hudson making examination.

Doc Amoroso of Field Hospital gives Capt. William Hudson a haircut.

Happy bunch of Signal Corps men in chain gang step marching to clean up picket line. This is a daily task.

"Hog-tying" a horse of the Signal Corps unit in order that a minor operation may be made.

Coat of maroon broadcloth, lined with satin of the same shade, for early fall. The cardinal cape is an unusual feature that will be the style.

"Bird of a dress." Balmasque velvet gown with silhouetted birds on bare shoulders.

Evening gown of heavy net and lace insertions over an underdress of pale pink soiree. The sleeves and bodice are piped with pink and a dainty touch is added by a cluster of pale blue roses at the girdle.